

Linden McKinley HS

L-M HOST TO GRANDVIEW CAGE TEAM SATURDAY

Linden-McKinley cagers will open their home season this Saturday night against Grandview's quintet. Game time is 7 p. m. for reserves with the varsity tilt set for 8 p. m. The Panthers defeated Grove City, 57-41, on the Greyhounds' court Tuesday night. Bill Spahr bagged 18 points. The Linden reserves defeated Grove City 31-21. Panther team members are, left to right, standing, Tom

Comments and Observations

OK, guys! 'Fess up: who did you crush on in high school? LM had the sharpest girls in the City League ... The North High co-eds were likely competitive, but sweetness and class trump snobbery ... Some of the LM guys tried to connect with girls from South at the Vets Memorial dances, but good luck with that ...

LM Trivia Pursuit

What LM grad was an assistant Attorney General of the state of Ohio?

Last Month's Question: A certain '60 classmate auditioned for the boys' commencement speaker slot in open tryouts ... The faculty selection committee judged his speech the best, but Principal Francis Henning vetoed their choice because she deemed it too "socialistic": the winner just asserted that in the future teams and groups of people would have more of an impact on society than individuals ... Who was this prescient classmate? Bill Lowry ...
