Comments and Observations

After graduation I was surprised how quickly everyone scattered to the winds ... Some of us married and started our families; some of us went into the workforce; some of us went on to college; some of us joined the military; some of us stayed local while others headed out for parts unknown; and, some of us disappeared, never to be seen or heard from again ... We were dreamers, and we set out to follow our dreams wherever they or Fate took us ...
