Comments and Observations

I have seven LM yearbooks ranging from 1953 to 1964 ... IMHO The ones with especially high quality are '61 and '64 ... However, I once flipped through the '60 North High yearbook, and it appeared to be professionally produced ... comparable to the quality of my college yearbook ...

Team photos of sports that span calendar years, like basketball and wrestling, usually aren't complete because of players graduating in January ... For example, the varsity basketball team photo in the '61 yearbook doesn't include mid-year graduates Bill Spahr, Bob Schaub, and Rudy Fadis ...

And forget about it if you're looking for the '57-'58 season reserve basketball team photo, as it's not there ...
